ÅSEDA – A TOP EXPORTER OF GLASSWARE

Åseda belongs since 1975 to Krona-Bruken AB – one of the leading glassworks in Sweden.

Founded in 1947 Åseda is one of the youngest glassworks. But the company takes great pride in being able to carry on the famed centuries of old traditions of Swedish glass making. Åseda's products are characterized by fresh ideas in design and youthful flair for colour. Respite the fact, that all Åseda crystal is handcrafted by master artisans, it is sold at surprisingly modest prices. Long series production, made possible because of its popularity in so many countries, enables Åseda to cut costs and pass on the savings to the customer.

The Åseda assortment is designed by Kjell Blomberg, Bo Borgström, Lisa Larson, Bengt Edenfalk, Annette Krahnert and Marianne Westman, all very wellknown Swedish designers. In the catalogue you will find our IBM-numbers and after the numbers a letter C for crystal, OZ for oceanblue etc. The colour guide you will find on this page.

In the attached pricelist you will find all items listed by IBM-numbers. When ordering you need to list the numbers only (not C, OZ etc). Under flap No. 10 in the pricelist you will find the prices on some very new items.
